

~ About

IOMC 2010 is the 3rd series of International Online Medical Conference which will take place on March 6 & 7, 2010. Building upon the success of previous IOMC conferences, IOMC 2010 aims to provide a forum for discussing and presenting research findings, studies, and experiences in the field of medicine, to create an opportunity for medical researchers, professors, scientists, students, and specialists to meet each other online and share their research findings, to provide a chance to find new research colleagues and partners for future research works, and to share their knowledge

~ Benefits

Being an online conference, authors and participants do not need to travel and instead will simply attend the conference online using conference professional portal. This will save participants a lot of costs (there is NO travelling costs, No accommodation costs, and No visa costs, etc. in IOMC).

IOMC professional conference portal makes IOMC 2010 conference like any physical conference as participants will be able to watch the presentations online, listen to the presenter and interact with presenter and others, discuss anything related to conference topic with the presenter and the rest of participants, share experiences and findings, etc. Moreover, the public and private chat among participants is included. The only difference of IOMC 2010 with physical conferences is that participants will save a lot of money by attending IOMC!

In the meanwhile, professional keynote speeches by renowned professors are programmed during the conference. Moreover, professional online workshops for medical students and researchers will be held during the conference days.

~ Call for papers

The conference welcomes papers in the broad field of medicine. A specific list of recommended themes is available on the conference website. All accepted papers will be published in the conference Electronic Proceedings Book entitled published by a renowned Publisher with an ISBN and indexed in renowned databases. Besides, high quality papers will have the chance to be nominated for publication in IOMC professional partner journals including over 14 peer-reviewed indexed and ISI journals.
