

25th International Conference on
HUMAN METABOLIC HEALTH- DIABETES, OBESITY & METABOLISM
&
2nd World Congress on
NUTRITION AND OBESITY PREVENTION
March 21-22, 2019 Dubai, UAE

Panoramic situation of metabolic diseases, diabetes in low income country Mozambique, Mavalane Area, Maputo City: Case study

Richard Nkurunziza

Mavalane General Hospital, Mozambique

Panoramic Situation of metabolic diseases, diabetes in low income country case study Mozambique Mavalane Area Maputo City is a rare global view of difficulties compiled data base study done in a low income country with an urban, semi-urban and rural epidemiological profile. It was collected all the study done on Mozambique and region. This study bring a real picture of the situation as unique study done on ground and was cross checked with international diabetic standard and national approved guideline. Actually it will be use at national wide to serve as model to approach the diabetic lack of data.

Biography

Richard Nkurunziza has completed his Post Specialization in International Health consultation at Liverpool Tropical Diseases in 2013 with more than 22 year as MD in low income countries like Mozambique and Uganda and in medium income countries like RSA and Russia and more than 12 years as an Internist. He is currently the Director of Internal Medicine Department with more than 1200 patients admitted in the ward and more than 3500 patients seen in OPD.

richnkur@gmail.com
richnkurhotmail.com

Notes: