

Editorial Note for Journal of Dermatology Case Reports

Journal of Dermatology Case Reports

I am pleased to mention that during the year 2019, all issues of volume 4 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online.

Journal of Dermatology Case Reports during this year released 3 issues jumping from the frequency of 2 in the previous years.

The Journal of Dermatology Case Reports has its article indexed and archived in, RefSeek, Hamdard University, EBSCO A-Z, and Publons.

During the calendar year 2019, DMCR received a total of 25 papers, out of which articles (44%) were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format and peer review process. During 2019 around 14 articles were subjected for publication after they were accepted in the peer review process. In the 3 issues of Volume 4 published during the year 2019, a total of 14 articles were published (at an average of 4 articles per issue) of which, articles were published from authors belonging mostly to the high income countries. A total of 84 research scientists from all over the world reviewed the 14 articles published in volume 4. Average publication lag time of an article was further reduced to 2-3 weeks.

During the calendar year 2019, a total of 16 Editors, 80 Reviewers joined the board of DMCR and contributed their invaluable services towards contribution as well as publication of articles.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Mario Vaccaro during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistant, Chung-Yi Chen in bringing out issues of DMCR in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of DMCR, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of DMCR and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 5 of DMCR in scheduled time.
