

Editorial Note for Journal of Kidney

Xiaobin Han

The Journal of Kidney was inaugurated in 2015 and has continued publishing successfully with Volume 6 in 2020. Since the journal was established, JOK has published in excess of 100 topical and interesting theoretical and Empirical Papers has been published with broad scope, encompassing all the areas of diagnosis and treatment system associated with related to kidney and renal disorders Hemodialysis, Renal Failure, Acute Tubular Necrosis, Glomerular Filtration Rate, Serum Creatinine, Nephroptosis, Diabetic Nephropathy, Radiation Nephropathy, Renal Failure, Angiotensin, Analgesic Nephropathy, Cytoscopy, Diabetic Kidney Disease, Fanconi Syndrome, Glomerular Diseases, etc.

Sometimes reaching our biggest goals takes more time, patience, and grit than we expect, hence the journal took a major step involving social media and making a varied platforms to our researchers to get in touch with us and Google Analytics has revealed an amazing statistics regarding the popularity of this journal. All through Feb 2014- Nov 2019 there were 196 page views. The total number of returning visitors were 3,832. Moreover, globally 45,870+ new users have accessed the journal website for information on the journal and the published articles. More than 25M+ Visitors visiting the journal site to read the published articles or submit their research outcomes Highest number of Visitors reporting both from the developed and developing nations Majority of the visitors have come from USA (27.16%), India (22.79%), Italy (4.37%), Sweden (4.37%), Spain (3.52%), and Australia (2.64%) Canada (2.64%), UK (2.64%), Turkey (2.64%) The Journal received tremendous attention from the researchers in terms of visits from USA, UK, India, Japan, Korea, China, etc.

The objective of JOK is to publish high-quality and original research papers alongside relevant and insightful reviews. As such, the journal aspires to be vibrant, engaging and accessible, and at the same time integrative and challenging, Needless to say, any papers that you wish to submit, either individually or collaboratively, are much appreciated and will make a substantial contribution to the early development and success of the journal.

I am extremely grateful to the group of editors including Guangping Chen, Ignatius Yun-Sang Tang, Jeffrey Penfield, Todd E. Pesavento, Xiaobin Han, Amina Akoulouze Bika, Suhail Ahmad, Giovanni Camussi, Denisa E. Ferastraoaru, Jeffrey S. Stoff, Saeid Nosrati, Ahmed Kamal, Athanasios Papatsoris, Borja Quiroga, Mariusz Niemczyk, Eirini Grapsa, Deepak K. Malhotra, Betul Sozeri, Amr Ahmed El-Arabey, Pragasa Viswanathan, Matthew J. Trainor, Drazenka Pongrac Barlovic, Chi-Feng Hung, Mehmet Kanbay, Eid M. Elshafey, Ash Mikhail, Nirav Shah, Ehab Mohamed Wahba Wafa, Anil Kumar Saxena, Bassam Saeed, Lai Silvia, Savas Ozturk, Isa Abdi Rad, Rolf Schreckenberger, Khazaei Mahmood Reza, Ingrid Lajdova, Benjamin Florian Koch, Osama Yousaf safdar, Beata Naumnik, Ioannis N. Boletis, Shasanka Shekhar Panda, Sandeep Magoon, Vijayakumar R. Kakade, Matjaz Kopac, for bestowing us with their consistent efforts and our reviewer panel for their meticulous work and helping the journal reach international Standards.

The Editor-in-Chief and editorial staff of JOK look forward to working with potential authors of review papers, for which the editorial process would be handled efficiently and in a timely manner. I would also extend my gladness by thanking the advisory and the editorial board, the office bearers and staff at omics secretariat for their support in bringing out yet another volume of JOK and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 7 in scheduled time.

---

Xiaobin Han

Assistant Professor

University of Tennessee Health Science Center, Memphis, USA Email:- xhan@uthsc.edu